Parish Assistance:

Parents who enroll their child in any Catholic Parish School may request financial assistance for grades 1-8 from their home parish, by sending a subsidy request to their pastor. St. Joseph parishioners must submit a subsidy request to Fr. Robert Charlton by April 14th. (Forms are available in the school office). Non-parishioners need to contact their own pastors.

Diocesan Assistance:

Additional financial assistance based on family need is also available through FACE (Foundation to Advance Catholic Education), formerly the St. Mary's Fund, for students in grades K-8. Forms are available in the school office. Once financial aid is verified, monthly tuition payments will be adjusted.

No financial aid is available for Preschool, however, tuition expenses for Preschool and Kindergarten may be tax deductible. Please consult your tax advisor for further information

Tuition Payment Options:

- Payment in full, check, cash or credit card, on or before July 1, 2017
- Monthly payments ONLY available through the FACTS Tuition Management Program over a period of 11 months beginning in July of 2016. Parents may select the 5th or 20th of the month for automatic bank payments
- Website: www.saintjosephschool.org and click on the FACTS Management link. There is a $45.00 non-refundable enrollment fee for this service

INFORMATION ON FACTS TUITION MANAGEMENT IS AVAILABLE IN THE OFFICE

The Fundraising may be met by:

- Making a cash payment of $350.00 on or before September 30, 2017
- Or by adding to your tuition

OR You may elect to participate in BOTH fundraising activities
